

Read all about our Speakers and full Session Descriptions: <http://www.hrhackathon.net/contributors/>

Agenda & Session Plan HR Hackathon Day 1
9h - 12h	Main Stage: Kick-off, Idea Pitches, Team Building, set to work
12h - 13h	Lunch
	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Session Corner 1</th> <th>Session Corner 2</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td> 13h - 14h Barbara Brähler: Hacking Google For Recruiting And Sourcing This session will cover tips and tricks on how Google's search engines and other Google applications can be used to find, attract and win tech talent. </td> <td> Anna Löw: Building a remote HR-Strategy In her talk Anna will share some best practices and learnings how she did remote HR work in an international TechStartup. All aspects of "traditional" HR will be covered. </td> </tr> <tr> <td> 14h - 15h Hung Lee: The Problem with Job Titles In job search and recruiting, search on 'Job Title' is the first thing most people do. Want to hire a PHP developer? Recruiters input 'PHP Developer'. What if we have been getting it wrong? </td> <td> Jonas Jatsch: Pushing HR innovation in a conservative enterprise Great sales pitch at a well-known company? And then... A never-ending pilot project? Let's discuss with corporate HR and startups how to really make HR innovation happen in a traditional enterprise. </td> </tr> <tr> <td> 15h - 16h Andreas Eisemann: How to leverage feedback from candidates More than 50% of applicants are unhappy with their application experience – and they talk about it. We'll show you how to use feedback to strengthen your employer brand. </td> <td> Oscar Mager: How Technology Hacks Hiring Oscar will discuss trends in technology impacting talent acquisition over the next years. To what extent will technology be able to fully automate the hiring process? </td> </tr> <tr> <td> 16h - 17h Brian Chaney: Hacking your way into a tech job Indeed has long been using Hackathons and Tech Talks for its own IT recruiting – how do recruiting hackathons work and what could you implement in your own company? </td> <td> Julian Steinbuch: Instant Messaging in Recruitment Instant messaging is definitely on the rise. What does this mean for recruitment? In this session, Julian (CEO of Blitz) will share insights about this hugely popular medium's use in recruitment. </td> </tr> <tr> <td> 17h - 18h Michael Witt: When Stories Recruit Michael presents VOITH'S latest Recruitment Campaign, where they combine content marketing and storytelling elements. Discuss with Michael, how content will affect your talent pipeline. </td> <td> Bas van de Haterd: Promising HR Start-Ups In his session Bas will discuss some promising areas in the HR and Recruiting field for HR startups and some interesting startups he's seen over the past few years. </td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Session Corner 1	Session Corner 2	13h - 14h Barbara Brähler: Hacking Google For Recruiting And Sourcing This session will cover tips and tricks on how Google's search engines and other Google applications can be used to find, attract and win tech talent.	Anna Löw: Building a remote HR-Strategy In her talk Anna will share some best practices and learnings how she did remote HR work in an international TechStartup. All aspects of "traditional" HR will be covered.	14h - 15h Hung Lee: The Problem with Job Titles In job search and recruiting, search on 'Job Title' is the first thing most people do. Want to hire a PHP developer? Recruiters input 'PHP Developer'. What if we have been getting it wrong?	Jonas Jatsch: Pushing HR innovation in a conservative enterprise Great sales pitch at a well-known company? And then... A never-ending pilot project? Let's discuss with corporate HR and startups how to really make HR innovation happen in a traditional enterprise.	15h - 16h Andreas Eisemann: How to leverage feedback from candidates More than 50% of applicants are unhappy with their application experience – and they talk about it. We'll show you how to use feedback to strengthen your employer brand.	Oscar Mager: How Technology Hacks Hiring Oscar will discuss trends in technology impacting talent acquisition over the next years. To what extent will technology be able to fully automate the hiring process?	16h - 17h Brian Chaney: Hacking your way into a tech job Indeed has long been using Hackathons and Tech Talks for its own IT recruiting – how do recruiting hackathons work and what could you implement in your own company?	Julian Steinbuch: Instant Messaging in Recruitment Instant messaging is definitely on the rise. What does this mean for recruitment? In this session, Julian (CEO of Blitz) will share insights about this hugely popular medium's use in recruitment.	17h - 18h Michael Witt: When Stories Recruit Michael presents VOITH'S latest Recruitment Campaign, where they combine content marketing and storytelling elements. Discuss with Michael, how content will affect your talent pipeline.	Bas van de Haterd: Promising HR Start-Ups In his session Bas will discuss some promising areas in the HR and Recruiting field for HR startups and some interesting startups he's seen over the past few years.
Session Corner 1	Session Corner 2
13h - 14h Barbara Brähler: Hacking Google For Recruiting And Sourcing This session will cover tips and tricks on how Google's search engines and other Google applications can be used to find, attract and win tech talent.	Anna Löw: Building a remote HR-Strategy In her talk Anna will share some best practices and learnings how she did remote HR work in an international TechStartup. All aspects of "traditional" HR will be covered.
14h - 15h Hung Lee: The Problem with Job Titles In job search and recruiting, search on 'Job Title' is the first thing most people do. Want to hire a PHP developer? Recruiters input 'PHP Developer'. What if we have been getting it wrong?	Jonas Jatsch: Pushing HR innovation in a conservative enterprise Great sales pitch at a well-known company? And then... A never-ending pilot project? Let's discuss with corporate HR and startups how to really make HR innovation happen in a traditional enterprise.
15h - 16h Andreas Eisemann: How to leverage feedback from candidates More than 50% of applicants are unhappy with their application experience – and they talk about it. We'll show you how to use feedback to strengthen your employer brand.	Oscar Mager: How Technology Hacks Hiring Oscar will discuss trends in technology impacting talent acquisition over the next years. To what extent will technology be able to fully automate the hiring process?
16h - 17h Brian Chaney: Hacking your way into a tech job Indeed has long been using Hackathons and Tech Talks for its own IT recruiting – how do recruiting hackathons work and what could you implement in your own company?	Julian Steinbuch: Instant Messaging in Recruitment Instant messaging is definitely on the rise. What does this mean for recruitment? In this session, Julian (CEO of Blitz) will share insights about this hugely popular medium's use in recruitment.
17h - 18h Michael Witt: When Stories Recruit Michael presents VOITH'S latest Recruitment Campaign, where they combine content marketing and storytelling elements. Discuss with Michael, how content will affect your talent pipeline.	Bas van de Haterd: Promising HR Start-Ups In his session Bas will discuss some promising areas in the HR and Recruiting field for HR startups and some interesting startups he's seen over the past few years.
18h - 19h	Main Stage - Prototype Project Updates
19h - 23h	Dinner, Drinks, Continue Work, Doors close at 23h

Agenda & Session Plan HR Hackathon Day 2

Main Stage - Keynote
10 - 11h	Birgit Mallow: What the hell is up-to-date Leadership? Today's dynamic markets are challenging industries more and more. Birgit Mallow speaks practically about the skills and competences that managers need nowadays. She shows how managers stimulate creativity and innovation for one thing, and on how to manage growth and efficiency for the other. And HR has a key role in all of this!
11 - 11h30	Coffee Break
Session Corner 1	Session Corner 2
11h30 - 12h30	Tim Ackerman: Agility and its implications for Talent Acquisition Zalando is developing into a fashion tech platform. Specifically in tech works in a 'radical agile' mode. We will discuss what the implications for HR and talent acquisition are in this environment.
12h30 - 13h	Lunch
13 - 14h	Enrico Foschi: Don't leave me here! As an experienced interviewer (and, well, interviewee...) I am looking forward to sharing some interesting tips & tricks you can use to stop losing (tech) candidates between interviews.
14 - 14h45	Meike A. Wilke: How to Select the ideal HR Software In this session we will discuss how you can approach the selection process for HR software and how to tackle arising challenges in this often confusing process.
15 - 16h	Prototype Pitches
16 - 17h	Jury Decision and Awards
17h	Good Bye Drinks

Read all about our Speakers and full Session Descriptions: <http://www.hrhackathon.net/contributors/>